

EOPS-EOP PROGRAMS @ GLANCE

SERVICE	EOPS/CARE PROGRAMS SAN DIEGO & IMPERIAL COUNTIES	EOP PROGRAM SDSU
Program Application	Dates vary. Students apply once they are enrolled at the college campus. Full-time status (12 sem. units) is generally required.	Dates vary. Students must apply prior to their first semester of study at SDSU. Full-time status (12 sem. units) is generally required.
Application Deadline	Dates Vary.	Follow published deadlines. Submit EOP application concurrently with the SDSU Undergraduate Admission Application. Apply at www2.calstate.edu/apply
New Student Orientation	Yes. Mandatory. Free.	Yes. Mandatory. 'First Contact', a one-day, free orientation normally scheduled in June.
Priority Registration	Yes.	No (EOP priority registration was in place prior to Fall 2006). Students can register early by completing SDSU's New Student Orientation.
Book Vouchers	Yes, amounts and policies range depending on budget/number of participants.	No. The SDSU Bookstore offers EOP participants a 10% discount.
EOPS Grants	Yes, may be awarded to eligible participants; amounts range.	Yes, about 2/3 of EOP participants have traditionally been awarded up to $500/semester. Awards contingent upon EFC, FA factors, on-campus housing, etc.
Academic Tutoring	Yes, referred to college tutoring center. Direct student services are generally referred to established academic support programs.	Yes. The EOP Learning Support Center (LSC) provides on-site academic tutoring by request, beginning three weeks into the semester.
Counseling	Yes. Three required academic counseling contacts per term.	Yes, on-going. Participants receive services until graduation.
Computer Lab	No, Students use existing on-campus services.	Yes. A small computer lab; offers discounted printing services, a quiet lounge area and free Wi-Fi.
Day care	Provide meal vouchers and transportation support for eligible CARE participants. Referrals to day care programs.	No.
Student Enrichment Activities	EOPS/CARE clubs, student success workshops, and enrichment activities vary by program.	EOP Student Advisory Board (ESAB) Student success workshops throughout the academic year, usually coordinated by the LSC or in cooperation w/ other depts.
Summer Transition Programs	Yes. Several campuses provide a summer transition experience for FTF. SIP (Summer Immersion/Summer Readiness, etc.) Students served and program duration varies by institution.	Summer Bridge-FTF (Five weeks) Numbers vary from 80 to 130 w/ @ 50 students housed on campus) Transfer Bridge –TRN (one week, 100 students in late July. Apply to program.)
Dream Act	Support services vary by campus. Some campuses have a student organization (e.g., Scholars without Borders, Futuros, Dreamers Movement Club, etc.)	A DREAM office housed in EOP, opened Spring 2017. Education without Borders (EWB) is a DREAM student organization founded in 2011 by graduate students in the School of Sociology, undocumented SDSU students and EOP staff.
Foster Youth	Yes. CAFYES/Guardian Scholars. Services vary by campus; book vouchers, meal cards, support with transportation expenses	Yes. Guardian Scholars. Dedicated support and academic services; scholarships; on-campus housing.
Other	Additional support depending on program participation, funding and student eligibility including; book voucher, meal voucher, transportation pass, emergency book loan, gas card, etc.	On-campus referrals.

This document is a general guide developed to assist EOP eligible transfer students and community college staff. For program updates please contact programs directly. Malo, Lorena M.A. FA_16. Update: 9/8/2017 12:16:25 PM