This training has the following goals for participants:

- To generate a community of allies for undocumented students
- To generate an understanding of undocumented and mix-status family students' background and experiences that may produce unique needs
- To form an awareness of policies that impact undocumented and mixed-status students
- To create opportunities for interdepartmental collaborations
- To gain strategies that can enhance persistence and completion of a university degree

The training is three hours long in EOP Office SSE 2109. If interested in dates and times provided, please sign up here:
