Celebrate Black History Month!

On Thursday, February 17th, the Department of Africana Studies hosted the annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Luncheon in celebration of the 50th anniversary of Africana Studies at SDSU. I had the pleasure of sitting at the Student Affairs and Campus Diversity Office of the Dean of Students table. (Pictured: Christine Molina, Caryl Montero-Adams, and me).

February is Black History Month. The Association for the Study of African American Life and History provides themes for Black History Month. The 2022 theme is "Black Health and Wellness." The Black Resource Center, the Department of Africana Studies, Afrikan Student Union, and other organizations are hosting a series of virtual and in-person events. The APIDA Center encourages you to attend at least one Black History Month event. Here are some upcoming highlights:

- Feb 19 from 1-3pm: Attend the SDSU Women's Basketball game. The theme is "Together We Rise for Black History." There will be a special halftime show featuring performances to honor Black History Month.
- Feb 27 from 3-5pm: Attend the "Let the Poets Speak: Know Your Worth" spoken word event at the Black Resource Center.
- Feb 28 from 12-2pm: Celebrate the fourth year of the establishment of the Black Resource Center.
- Visit the San Diego History Center and check out the "Celebrate San Diego: Black History and Heritage" exhibition.

Solidarity matters. Ina Sugihara was a Japanese American activist in the 1940s. She said, "The fate of each minority depends upon the extent of justice given all other groups."
APIDA Center welcomes back Mirei Kubota!!

Mirei Kubota is back! YAY! Mirei was among the first student staff members hired at the APIDA Center in Fall 2019. A business management major with a specialization in entrepreneurship, she took a year off and lived in Japan during the pandemic! As of February 2022, she has returned to the APIDA Center as a student staff member. She said, "I really like the APIDA Center community. It feels very inclusive, whether or not you're APIDA. I'm proud to work at the APIDA Center as we address current issues and educate people while having fun."

While abroad, Mirei kept up with the APIDA Center via Instagram. She said, "My heart will always be in APIDA Center, even if I'm not there." She is extremely proud of her Japanese heritage. Having attended Japanese language school for over ten years, she had no problem talking to others while traveling all over Japan. In addition to traveling, she taught English, volunteered at the Tokyo Olympics, and ate a lot. Her favorite dish was kaisendon, a seafood dish. Mirei is no stranger to world travel. She also did a study abroad in Germany - her favorite thing was eating Turkish food in Germany.

We are thrilled to have Mirei back on the team. She is currently an active member of Delta Sigma Pi, a business fraternity. She formerly served as the Executive Vice President and Activities Coordinator of APSA.
APIDA Center crafts crafty cards for Lunar New Year!

The APIDA Center hosted a crafty card-making night on February 14th. We made cards but we had more fun coming up with puns and pick-up lines. (You never know what will happen at the APIDA Center!)

- "If you were a vegetable, you'd be a cute-cumber."
- "You must be an artist because you're so good at drawing me in."
- "Was that an earthquake or did you shake up my world?"

We could go on...Not only are we crafty, but we are also clever! We love doing arts and crafts at the Center. Get ready for many more crafty events.

Kaelan Ganzon, College of Health and Human Services A.S. Representative, is recommending BAPE (short for A Bathing Ape). He said, "BAPE is a Japanese fashion brand catered toward streetwear using their iconic interpretation of camouflage and ape logo as their hallmarks in the fashion space. I was gifted this reusable and compatible grocery bag from my dear friend, Mirei, who recently came back from Japan. This means a lot to me because it was a present from a great friend and it's from a brand I grew up following and eventually bought into."

Increase your understanding of the importance of APIDA representation in public health research. This panel will share their knowledge about living healthier and happier lives. This workshop is hosted by Cassie Doyle, Deepali Ernest, Joy Ito, Aaditi Varade, and Dr. Tianying Wu.

Accelerating Technology and Sustainability Fee Open Forum
Location: APIDA Center
Date: Thursday, March 3 from 2:30-3:30pm
This forum will explain the proposed fee increase, provide an opportunity for students to engage in conversation, and answer any questions. All students will have the opportunity to provide feedback during this forum. Learn more from this webpage.

Student-Led Workshops & Student-Created Social Media Campaigns
Do you have expertise on a topic? Do you have a special skill? Consider sharing your knowledge with us! APIDA Center launched our Student-Led Workshops and Student-Created Social Media Campaigns. This is a great opportunity to show off your expertise and share your passion with others. It's also an opportunity to learn how to plan an event or prepare a campaign with our support. Work with an APIDA Center staff member who will serve as your project mentor. We are interested in any and all APIDA-related topics! If you are interested in participating, email us at apida@sdsu.edu.
One SDSU x APIDA Center is hosting a MAKERS' MARKET!

Calling all Makers, D.I.Y.ers, entrepreneurs, and singer-songwriters! One SDSU and APIDA Center is hosting a MAKERS' MARKET! We want to show off your talents. We also want to provide you an opportunity to make a little money for yourself, for your student organization, and/or for a good cause. Sign up for a table and sell your homemade products. And/or, sign up to sing an original song on stage. Sign up by Feb 15 for priority consideration. There are limited spots and we will accept as many people as possible. We will confirm your participation by March 1. The actual Market will take place on Thursday, March 10th from 2-8pm in the Student Union Courtyard.
