Instructions for 2021-22 Parent Request for Review

This form is provided in response to your request to have your student's financial aid eligibility for the 2021-22 academic year reviewed due to special circumstances not addressed on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or California Dream Application. Special circumstances that may warrant review include, but are not limited to —

- the loss of a job or a substantial reduction of income for you or your spouse;
- death, divorce or separation that occurred after submitting the FAFSA or California Dream Application;
- income received in 2019 that you did not receive in 2020 or 2021;
- significant and/or recurring documented medical expenses not covered by insurance; and/or
- loss due to natural disaster not covered by insurance (damage from earthquake, flood, or fire).

Required Information

Submit the following information with this form —

- A signed letter clearly explaining your special circumstances with documentation appropriate to your situation as described in the sections that follow.
- A 2019 and 2020 IRS Tax Return Transcript and W-2 form(s) for you and your spouse, if married. Submit a 2019 IRS Tax Return Transcript with this appeal even if you have already provided one as part of the verification process for your 2021-22 FAFSA or California Dream Application.

To order a free IRS Tax Return Transcript, go to irs.gov and follow the directions for requesting a transcript.

Information Specific to Your Situation

Loss or significant reduction of income and/or benefits

- Date employment ended or changed and why; reason you will not be able to work at least part time. Willfully ceasing employment is not typically considered for appeal purposes in the absence of special or unusual circumstances.
- If you are not currently employed but expect to look for employment, or you will work fewer hours, report the gross amount you anticipate earning in the "Estimated Income" section on page 2.
- Photocopies of your and your spouse's (if married), last or most recent paycheck stub(s) showing year-to-date earnings.
- Photocopies of current official documentation of unemployment compensation, disability insurance, severance pay, retirement pension pay out, and/or other documentation appropriate to your situation.

Separation/divorce

- Date of separation/divorce, names and ages of current household members, monthly amount of child support and/or spousal support and when payments begin.
- If you no longer receive child support for one or more of your children, specify date(s) the child support ended, how many children in your household will continue to receive child support, and how much you will receive each month.

Income received in 2019 that you did not receive in 2020 or 2021

- Examples include: loss of child or spousal support, capital gains from the sale of property or investments, severance pay, or other income you did not receive in 2020 or 2021.
- Report the type and amount of income received in 2019 and where that income is now.

Significant and/or recurring medical, dental or nursing home expenses not covered by insurance for family members in your household

- Photocopies of billing statements from the medical, dental or nursing home provider(s), an explanation of why these expenses are not covered by insurance, and proof of payment (e.g., credit card statements, copies of canceled checks, bank account withdrawals, etc.) for expenses paid out of pocket in 2019.
- A copy of Schedule A from your 2019 and 2020 personal federal income tax returns.

Loss due to natural disaster not covered by insurance (damage from earthquake, flood, or fire)

- Description of the situation and documentation to substantiate the claim (e.g., a copy of the FEMA disaster assistance form, insurance appraisal, etc.).
